Youth Program and Nursery-Preschool

Youth classes and activities will be provided at specified times.

A nursery room across from the conference hall will be provided for mothers.

It is important that you know where your children are at all times!

They should be continually supervised on the hotel premises.

We ask all parents to please keep sick children away from the nursery and youth classes.

Music

Music is an important part of our conference program. We are planning special music as well as congregational hymns. All special music and pre-recorded music used during our services must be cleared by the music director prior to use. If you would like to share your special music at the conference, please see Robert Bell for details about participation. If you have questions concerning our audio equipment, please see our AV technician Ed Butler for questions.
